3 - Poker as exempt gaming in clubs and alcohol licensed premises

29.10. Exempt gaming is equal chance gaming generally permissible 0 in any club or alcohol licensed premises. Such gaming should be ancillary to the purposes of the premises. This provision 0 is automatically available to all such premises but is subject to statutory stakes and prize limits determined by the Secretary 0 of State.

29.11. A fee may not be levied for participation in poker offered by alcohol-licensed premises under the exempt gaming 0 rules. A compulsory charge, such as charging for a meal, may constitute a participation fee, depending on the particular circumstances. 0 However, clubs may charge a participation fee. The amount they may charge is as prescribed in regulations (SI No 1944/2007: 0 The Gambling Act 2005 (Exempt Gaming in Clubs) Regulations 2007) (opens in new tab). See Appendix C for further details.

29.12. 0 In order for the poker to qualify as exempt gaming, clubs and alcohol licensed premises may not charge a fee 0 on games or levy or deduct an amount from stakes or winnings. The gaming should also be supervised by a 0 nominated gaming supervisor and comply with any code of practice issued by the Commission under s.24 of the Act.

29.13. Poker 0 clubs established primarily for the purpose of providing poker or other gaming require Commission operating licences and premises licences. Further 0 information is available in the Commission's quick guides Poker in pubs (opens in new tab) (PDF) and Poker in clubs 0 (opens in new tab)

Removal of exemption for alcohol licensed premises

29.14. Licensing authorities can remove the automatic authorisation for exempt 0 gaming in respect of any particular alcohol licensed premises by making an order under s.284 of the Act (see also 0 Part 26).

That section provides for the licensing authority to make such an order if:

provision of the gaming is not 0 reasonably consistent with the pursuit of the licensing objectives

gaming has taken place on the premises that breaches a condition of 0 s.279 – for example, the gaming does not abide by the prescribed limits for stakes and prizes, a participation fee 0 is charged for the gaming, or an amount is deducted or levied from sums staked or won the premises are mainly 0 used for gaming an offence under the Act has been committed on the premises.

29.15. Such an order could be used by 0 a licensing authorities where, for example, they discover that poker is being offered in alcohol licensed premises that consistently breaches 0 the prescribed limits on stakes and prizes, participation fees are being charged for the poker, amounts are deducted from stakes 0 or winnings, or poker (and other gaming) is the main activity offered on the premises.

Code of practice for exempt equal 0 chance gaming 29.16. The Commission has issued a code of practice under s.24 of the Act in respect of exempt equal 0 chance gaming.

29.17. The code of practice requires owners, licensees, clubs and welfare institutes to adopt good practice measures for the 0 provision of gaming in general, and poker in particular. The code also sets out the stakes and prizes limits and 0 the limits on participation fees (for clubs) laid out in regulations.

Poker in alcohol licensed

premises

29.18. The Commission actively engages with 0 the larger national and regional organisers of poker leagues to remind them of the limited exemptions that apply to poker 0 being offered in pubs. Infringements of such requirements as stake and prize limits which are localised are normally best managed 0 by the local authority responsible for issuing the alcohol premises licence. Template letters published on the Commission's website have proved 0 effective in assisting management of such cases.

29.19. Gaming is only covered by the Act if it is played for prizes 0 of money or money's worth. A number of poker tournaments and leagues have been established in alcohol licensed premises based 0 on playing for points. In some leagues the organisers offer 'prizes' at the end of a series of weekly games 0 for the players with the most points.

29.20. It is likely that the association of a prize with a monetary value 0 with a game or series of games constitutes gaming, certainly by the latter stages of the competition. If the eventual 0 prize is worth more than the maximum prize set out in regulations, then it could be unlawful gaming. For example, 0 if a tournament simply involves a series of straightforward 'knockout' qualifying rounds, culminating in a 'final' game, then the winner's 0 prize in the final – whether it comprises the stakes laid in that game, a separate prize provided by the 0 organiser, or a combination of the two – must not exceed £100. The regulations set a limit of £100 on 0 a prize that may be won in any game of poker (in a pub). In a knockout tournament, the overall 0 prize is clearly winnable in a single game (the 'final') and is therefore won in a game of poker and 0 subject to the prize limit. The stake and prize limits must also, of course, be applied to each game in 0 the tournament.

29.21. Alternatively, the prize competed for may be the opportunity to play in 'invitational cash tournaments'. Notwithstanding that these 0 'prizes' may be of an uncertain value, and are likely to be held in mainstream gaming venues under regulated conditions, 0 usually a casino, the Act prohibits gaming in alcohol licensed premises being linked to gaming in any other premises. Players 0 competing across premises for a 'prize' are likely to be engaged in linked gaming, which is unlawful (s.269(5) of the 0 Act). Consequently, organisers should not host events where players are competing against players in other premises for a prize.

29.22. In 0 some types of tournaments there will be no single 'final' game in which it can be said with certainty that 0 the player won the overall prize. In such circumstances, one should look to the individual games played by the overall 0 winner and ensure that the overall prize does not cause any of those individual games to exceed the maximum £100 0 prize limit per game and the maximum stake of £100 per day.

29.23. For examples of poker tournament, league and competitions 0 games and prize and stake examples see Appendix H.

Poker under a club gaming permit

29.24. A club gaming permit can only 0 be granted to a members' club (including a miners' welfare institute), but cannot be granted to a commercial club or 0 other alcohol licensed premises.

29.25. Other than in the case of clubs established to provide facilities for gaming of a prescribed 0 kind (currently bridge and whist), clubs seeking club gaming permits must be established 'wholly or mainly' for purposes other than 0 gaming. When a club gaming permit is granted, there are no limits on the stakes and prizes associated with poker.

29.26. 0 If a club established to provide facilities for gaming of a prescribed kind (currently bridge and whist) has a club 0 gaming permit, it may not offer any other gaming besides bridge and whist. If such a club does not have 0 a permit, it may provide exempt gaming provided it is not established to function for a limited period of time 0 and it has at least 25 members. If it wishes to offer other non-exempt gaming, it will require a Commission 0 casino operating licence and any relevant personal licences.

29.27. The poker which a club gaming permit allows is subject to conditions:

(a) 0 in respect of equal chance gaming:

the club must not deduct money from sums staked or won the participation fee must not 0 exceed the amount prescribed in regulations the game takes place on the premises and must not be linked with a game 0 on another set of premises.

Two games are linked if:

the result of one game is, or may be, wholly or partly 0 determined by reference to the result of the other game or the amount of winnings available in one game is wholly 0 or partly determined by reference to the amount of participation in the other game, and a game which is split 0 so that part is played on one site and another part is played elsewhere is treated as two linked games

only 0 club members and their genuine guests participate.

(b) in respect of other games of chance:

the games must be pontoon and chemin 0 de fer only no participation fee

may be charged otherwise than in accordance with the regulations no amount may be deducted from 0 sums staked or won otherwise than in accordance with the regulations.

29.28. A 48-hour rule applies in respect of all three 0 types of gaming, so that the games may only be played by people who have been members of the club 0 for at least 48-hours or have applied or been nominated for membership or are genuine guests of a member.

29.29. More 0 information about club gaming permits can be found in Part 25 of this guidance.

29.30. Private clubs with a club gaming 0 permit cannot run the premises wholly or mainly for the purposes of gaming, nor can the club make a profit 0 as all funds must be applied for the benefit of members. Experience indicates that illegal clubs will go to considerable 0 lengths to disguise the true nature of their activities. Consequently, building the evidence required to review and rescind the permit 0 can be time consuming and resource intensive. It is therefore essential that licensing authorities scrutinise applications for club gaming permits 0 carefully. The applicant should be asked for as much information as required (such as a business plan) in order to 0 satisfy the licensing authority that it is a bone fide club whose main activity will not be gambling. The Commission 0 are in a position to assist in sharing intelligence on individuals or organisations in circumstances where a licensing authority has 0 doubts as to the credentials of an applicant.

29.31. There is now a considerable body of knowledge and experience as to 0 how a gaming permit can be withdrawn. This may include using other legislation such as the Proceeds of Crime Act 0 (opens in new tab) which was used by a licensing authority to prosecute and imprison one club owner.

29.32. On occasion 0 licensing authorities may consider that, as they have not received complaints about a club, there is no requirement for them 0 to act. In these circumstances it is worth bearing in mind that they are very unlikely to receive complaints about 0 such clubs, unless it is issues such as local noise and nuisance. The people attending the club do so from 0 choice. Secondly, the club is effectively operating as an illegal casino and none of the protections afforded in a casino 0 are in place, such as personal licence holders and anti-money laundering safeguards.
