How to Choose Where to Play Slots with Bitcoin

There are several conditions you need to factor in before you can say for sure that you've found the best Bitcoin slots site for your needs. If you don't know where to look, that's okay - we have explained in a few paragraphs what you need to bear in mind. The goal is to ensure that you find a gambling platform created with your best interest in mind and that it is legit. These are the things you should consider.

Bonuses and VIP programs

It's always nice to be part of a Bitcoin casino slots promotion that credits free spins and extra cash to your account the more you play. One of the ways to make sure this is the case is to check for a VIP program you will be eligible for. Such bonus schemes are commonplace at the BTC slots sites with a license because the players expect nothing but the best, and getting a good bang for your buck goes hand in hand with that.

Accepted

cryptocurrencies

BTC is not everyone's preferred option for crypto payments. There are so many alternatives nowadays that it's easy for crypto-savvy gamblers to use altcoins.

The best Bitcoin sites accept other mainstream cryptocurrencies like ETH, LTC, BCH, and DOGE. Don't shy away from experimenting with these means of banking when you gamble online. You could play many good online slots with a simple DOGE or BCH deposit.

Topping up your account does not influence how you will play slots afterwards.

Fast and easy deposits and withdrawals

Fast deposits and withdrawals is right. BTC is not the fastest network anymore, so just imagine how high the bar is. The speeds of both inbound and outbound transfers are pretty high and unmatched mostly by fiat payment service providers. The transaction speed strongly depends on how active the network is because you will need confirmations from the active miners before your payment is effectuated.

Security and licensing

What used to be a hot-button issue is slowly becoming a norm. Yes, we are talking about the legalisation and regulation of Bitcoin video slots websites. Most of the operators have been on the market long enough to want to license their business, although that's not necessary due to the hard-to-categorize nature of the business. But nowadays, we see more and more big operators getting a license from the MGA, the government of Costa Rica, or Curacao.

Privacy

Cryptocurrency-based online slots provide high levels of privacy, attracting users who value their personal information. These platforms often require minimal input during the registration process, enabling real money play without excessive personal detail disclosure.

Diversity of games and game providers

More and more provably fair games are added to the mix of BTC titles. The same is true for gambling software developers eager to get into this new branch. As a result, you will see that so many operators offering Bitcoin slots feature more than a dozen providers on their online platforms. You will never feel neglected or limited to just a couple of choices. With that comes the freedom to be an informed user who can pick based on their preferences instead of playing reel games you don't even know.

Support

We don't think anyone advocates zero customer support. When you bet crypto, you need to know that someone can assist you in case of some technical issues you experience. The best online Bitcoin slots sites achieve this by having multiple channels via which you can reach them. Those usually include live chat, an onsite contact form, and FAQ. We see phone support being dropped out more and more these days.

User experience

"Smooth" and

"streamlined" are the qualities to shoot for with user experience. We are happy to say that the Bitcoin slots casinos achieve the balance between functional and user-friendly interface. The same is true when welcoming new and seasoned players, and as a result, the learning curve is not steep at all. What's more - you have so many games to choose from that the best BTC gambling websites are particularly diligent in how they order them.

Reputation

Reputation is probably the first thing you consider about a gambling operator, as it conveys a lot of information in a few words. Everyone can probably guess that people who play Bitcoin slots at a reputable site benefit from certain things that not every slots casino can guarantee. For example, the best casino software developers don't work with disreputable operators. This also reflects in the payouts. A good reputation means that you are guaranteed to get your payout.

Types of Bonuses

Offered to Play Bitcoin Slots

There is a variety of bonuses you can play Bitcoin slots with at the best BTC casino sites. They all come in handy in difficult situations and could be triggered under different circumstances unless they are part of the same offer. Let's look at them individually and make a few points about which one is preferable.

Free spins

The first and most obvious of BTC slots bonuses is free spins.

Don't think twice about calling this a brilliant bonus offer for slot machine players.

It gives you what's essential for the game - the right to spin the reels for free.

Well, nothing the house gives you is free. The BTC casinos offering free spins always put in their offering requirements, also called wagering conditions. There will also be rules about how the spins can be utilised and the worth of each one of them.

No deposit

bonus

No deposit casinos accepting Bitcoin were all the rage when online crypto gambling first started being a thing on the internet. A no deposit bonus is the single most attractive offer to low-stakes players. Basically, you are not asked to invest anything to receive the bonus. Since this is rather disadvantageous to the casino, offers of this kind are limited to one per household, and only new players are eligible for them. On top of that, no deposit bonuses don't go so high in value.

Matched deposit

bonus

This one is more common than the no deposit bonus because the approach is a win-win for both sides - you commit a sum of money, and the house backs you up with an equal amount. At least most of the time, this is the way it goes. Sometimes a Bitcoin casino with slots may match more than 100% of your initial deposit, and on very rare occasions, it may match less than 100% of your first deposit. A solid full deposit match is one of the best BTC casino bonuses you can get.

Cashback

The cashback is very characteristic of BTC slots casinos due to the very nature of slot machines. Cashback is one of the best things to reward loyal players, and many operators do just that. You may get a cashback on your losses if you are a VIP player who reached a specific tier on the loyalty ladder. Cashbacks are also dispensed on specific days in some casinos if there's a daily promotion of this type. In any case, this is an indispensable asset to any BTC slot player's arsenal.

Reload bonus

Do you like to make multiple deposits to your gambling account so that you have the right amount of money to play with? Then the reload bonus will be a faithful friend to you. This bonus rarely deserves a special name because most welcome bonus packs would almost always cover more than just one deposit. In other words, each of your first few deposits will usually be subject to a deposit match bonus. Isn't that great? It could, however, be the case that with every next deposit, the match percentage will decrease.

Playing Slots with Fiat Currencies vs

Slots with Cryptocurrencies

Fiat or crypto is the big question many online gamblers are asking themselves. There's no concrete answer; just facts must be acknowledged. It doesn't even come down to a final decision because the best online Bitcoin slots sites accept crypto and fiat currency. However that may be, we will assume that you are interested in cryptocurrency casinos with slots, so we will explain the benefits of betting with hard currency vs cryptocurrency.

Faster deposits and withdrawals

fastest deposit is via debit card payments. You have to wait around a minute for the transfer to clear and appear in your account. In other words, it feels instant and practically is an instant deposit. While it's a different story with cryptocurrency and the decentralised structure of the blockchain. You rely on a unit called "miners" to officialise your transaction, which can sometimes be a pain. It's still swift means of transferring money, but wait time can be slightly different.

Lower house edge

Lower

house edge is not a question of how you choose to do banking, as it is about what games you intend to play. Slots are not known as the best RTP games of chance available on the internet. You can still play cryptocurrency slots with good RTP if you do your research and know which game to pick, but that has nothing to do with how you choose to fund your account.

Bigger bonuses

Nobody can deny that the welcome bonuses of BTC slots casinos are bigger in comparison with regular online casinos. The latter rarely give you as much as three-four Bitcoins worth of bonus money. It would require extraordinary circumstances to receive a bonus that big from a non-crypto casino site. Bitcoin casino sites are better for receiving bigger offer sizes and better terms.

Spin the Reels

Responsibly with your Crypto

Here are a few tips to help you gamble responsibly:

Stop

playing if you feel anxious;

Don't play if you are not thinking straight;

Take a break,

if you've been playing incessantly for a long time;

You must not play, if you can't

cover your losses;

Don't play, if you don't know the risks of compulsive gambling.

FAQ: Slots with Bitcoin

Is playing slots with cryptocurrency safe?

It's fair to say that it's safe as long as the slot machine software was created by a reputable developer. It's also recommendable that a testing agency has verified the RTP of the game. It gets even better if you play provably fair Bitcoin slots, as they are designed to prove in real time that the outcome of each round is decided at random.

What are the best game studios for online slot games?

Most reputable Bitcoin slots casinos come up with games of their own, categorised as "specials". Apart from that, you might want to try an approved slot game provider like Microgaming, NetEnt, BGaming, or EGT. There are other developers worth their salt, making great slot games that can be played with BTC.

Except for BTC, what are the other widely used coins to play slots?

Bitcoin is not the only cryptocurrency enabling online gamblers to play decent reel games on a reputable casino site. There are many other coins accepted at the safe Bitcoin slots sites. Other choices include LTC, BCH, ETH, and others. One thing you should follow when you deposit with an altcoin is the minimum deposit amount.

Can I play crypto slot

games for free?

Testing Bitcoin video slots is a big part of crypto gaming, so yes, you can play BTC slots for free. You need to first select the game mode, which will be called either "demo" or "play money" mode. In doing so, you are making the choice to use play money instead of currency that has any value. It goes without saying that you don't accumulate any real winnings at the end.

What is the best Bitcoin wallet for slot casinos?

The best wallet for gambling with Bitcoin would be the one that has been tested by millions of satisfied users. If we trust these criteria, we can firmly say that Bitcoin's crypto wallet is perfectly suited for crypto gambling. It won't help you improve your win-to-loss ratio, but it will safeguard and transfer your BTC to a Bitcoin casino slots site of your choosing.

How do you deposit and withdraw crypto on a Bitcoin slots website?

You need a wallet to move your Bitcoins freely around BTC casinos online. If you already have that, just copy and paste the newly created address into the cashier of our gambling account and specify the amount of BTC you want to transfer. Cashing BTC out is done the same way.

What does slot machine RTP mean?

The

RTP of a slot machine is the theoretical return-to-player rate calculated by the software provider. This parameter can tell you some things and others can't. You should not take it as an excuse to gamble recklessly. Even a high RTP of 98% doesn't mean you can't lose a dozen consecutive spins.

Can I win a jackpot by playing slots with Bitcoin?

Yes, there are many jackpot slot games on the best Bitcoin casino sites, so it's more than natural to think about winning a jackpot. How you will cash it out is a different story, though. It would depend on the withdrawal limits of the casino you are playing at.

Conclusion: The Best Bitcoin Slots Casinos Ranked by Bitcoin

All things considered, we believe that the best choice for crypto video slot enthusiasts is Bitcoin Games. Our ranking isn't final, though. We'll keep on the lookout for other ambitious Bitcoin slots casinos deserving to be in our top-ten list of Bitcoin slot casinos.
