Israel approved the largest expropriation of land in the West Bank, exacerbating tensions in Gaza

According to a watchdog anti-settlement Israeli report Paz Agora, the authorities recently approved the expropriation of 12.7 km<sup>2</sup> (almost 5 mi<sup>2</sup>) of land in the West Bank in the West Bank, indicating that it is "the largest expropriation since the Oslo Accords of 1993".

Monitoring of settlements says that the recent acquisition of land links settlements in Israel along a crucial corridor adjacent to the West Bank, a development that threatens the formation of a future Palestinian state.

Um passo bonus good welcome pixbet direction wrong

The UN spokesperson, Stéphane Dujarric, classified the expropriation as "a step in the wrong direction", adding that "the direction we want to follow is to find a negotiated solution between the two states".

Um mapa que será alterado dramaticamente

In a recording obtained by Peace Now, the Israeli Finance Minister, Bezalel Smotrich, revealed that the 2024 land expropriations have exceeded the annual average by ten times. Smotrich said: "This is a mega-strategic and we are investing a lot in it. This will change the map dramatically."

Forcing Palestinians to flee

Since October 2024, settlers have increased evictions and attacks, forcing Palestinians to flee to neighboring cities, and there has been an increase in the demolition of homes by the army. In June 2024, Israeli soldiers destroyed 11 homes and other structures in Umm al-Kheir, a village in the West Bank, leaving 50 people homeless.
